A bon voyage for the Mayor.

There are only six more buying days to Christmas.We don't blame Gov. Bell for desiring to return to Walden to take a rest.The government should either stop the hazing at Annapolis or the howling against it.The public shivers twice—once over the weather and the other over the prospect of a coal strike.The wise Christmas buyers will make their purchases early, and the wise merchants will be ready to receive them.Bound not to be outdone by Barre, a Montpelier thermometer yesterday registered one degree lower than any Barre indicator could boast.After a period of rest Carnegie again breaks out with another large offer, this time to Union college. The Scotch-American still furnishes copy for the newspapers.Has the State Tuberculosis Commission decided on a location for the new tuberculosis hospital? Several weeks ago it was stated that they were anxious to get the matter settled.If it is any consolation to Sheriff Fack to be told that the Indiana man who called him "official man butcher" got a fine of $10, then tell him. The Indiana man admits that he didn't knowSanta Claus is flying our way and our holiday trade has started with flying colors.
We have made great preparations.We have a specially selected stock of practical presents for men and boys. We know their tastes. Do you?If you're open to suggestions perhaps we could help on the puzzling question
"what to buy for him."

or he wouldn't have called him that name.Joseph A. DeBoer of Montpelier thinks he is in line for becoming a Granger because of the fact that his company placed twelve millions in farm mortgages during the past year. He apparently has confidence in farm property, at any rate.

UNION SIGNAL'S NEW EDITOR.

The name of Philip J. Halvosa of Barre now appears as editor of the Vermont Union Signal, the labor paper published at Rutland. The first issue under the new editor appeared today.
In outlining the policy of the paper, Editor Halvosa declares that it should be the safeguarding of the interests of its constituents—the trade unionists ofVermont. He invites criticism, not the destructive, but the constructive kind, and he drops the gentle hint that a newspaper cannot be run on a charity basis with the paper furnishing all the charity. The Times wishes Editor Hal-vosa the best of success in his undertaking.Supt. Lovell of the Vermont state prison may be pardoned a smile as he reads of the escape of two men from a Boston prison Wednesday night, and by the worn-out practice of a file concealed in a dinner sent to the prisoners by a "beautiful woman." Those things, however, will happen in the best regulated prisons, possibly.

Sweet Solitude.
She—And do you really love me for myself alone?
He—Sure. That's why I don't want your mother to live with us after we are married.—Somerville Journal."Would Do No Good.
"I had a queer dream the other night," said a young man in a barber's chair downtown Saturday evening. "I dreamed that a peculiar affliction came over my girl's eyes, and she took me for a dog. She tied a string to my neck and led me around. Whenever I would stand up she'd say, 'Down, Nero,' and push me down on my hands and knees. I tried to explain to her that I wasn't a dog, but she wouldn't see it that way. Finally, after I had worn big holes in the knees of my trousers, I decided to kick.
I stood up.
"Down, Nero," she said, but I refused to obey. I jerked backward and fell out of bed. That woke me up." After the barber had shaved one side of the young man's face the latter continued: "My girl's name is Barker. Perhaps that's the reason I dreamed she took me for a dog. I can think of no other."
"Would better marry her and change that name," said the barber, with a smile.
"I wouldn't do any good," came from the customer. "My name is Kerr."—

CHRISTMAS

THIRD ANNIVERSARY SALE

Three years ago next week The Vaughan Store opened its doors in Barre. To celebrate this event we are going to give you better values next week than you ever received before from this or any other Dry Goods Store. For the past three years there has been a steady growth in our business. In that time we have remodeled the store, making it nearly a third larger. We have just put in a new cash system. We shall always try and serve you best along with the standard stock you know so well as a part of The Vaughan Store supremacy.

Our Christmas Goods are all opened and displayed all through the store, where every care has been taken to place only new, choice goods for Christmas. No old stock from last year. Every department has Christmas Novelties.

THE FIRST FLOOR

If you knew as much about this sale and the great values we have for you as we do ourselves, you couldn't keep away from this store. We have room to mention only a few items.

Shirt Waist Patterns, put up one in a box, at nearly half price—59c, 89c, $1.19 and $1.48 each.

the recent term of court and found not guilty because of insanity, and whose commitment to the asylum for observation was advised by the court.It has been decided to divert from the usual custom of having Christmas trees and exercises at the churches, and instead to have the union Christmas tree and appropriate exercises at the town hall on Monday evening, Dec. 25, to which the general public is cordially invited.Col. H. O. Bixby has received intelligence of the death of his uncle, Urban L. Bixby of Brookfield.Charles West of Tunbridge was brought here and lodged in jail Thursday night as the result of a family jar.A farewell reception will be given Col.
C. S. Emery and family Monday evening at the town hall, to which the towns-tions and tokens of esteem. Mr. and Mrs. Larkin have reared a family of five children, all of whom are living, and they have also fifteen grandchildren and six great grandchildren.Albert C. Bliss, who for several days has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs.

Holton S. Annis on the west hill, has returned to his home in West Charles.A Happy Thought After a Cold Night.

The Frost King has arrived at last and while he has been unusually slow in getting here we have no doubt but what he will do as much effective work as ever.

If, after a cold night or two, you find you are hardly prepared to receive him, it's an extremely pleasant thing to know where you can get the things you need to feel comfortable in during his stay here, for day or night, asleep or awake.

For Night.—Comforters and Blankets for your bed.

For Day.—Winter Underwear, Hosiery, Gloves, Mittens, Mufflers, Furs, Fur-lined Coats and other Coats—in fact everything but hats and shoes.Bring your Winter wants to us and we will guarantee to fill them well, and while you are here take a look at the hundred-and-one things we have bought for Christmas shoppers.
